

Can I use extracts from Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing question papers in my resource?

Publishers can use extracts from past Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing question papers in their teaching and learning resources, as long as they comply with the following guidance.

- In reproducing the material, it must be acknowledged that the material is Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing copyright by stating it is reproduced with the permission of Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing. Permission to use the material does not imply that Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing endorses the content of the book/resource. Materials will also be available to other publishers to use in the same way, and will continue to appear on our website.
- Publishers are responsible for sourcing question paper content from the Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing website. The versions of the material that can be used for external publication must only be those found on the Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing website www.admissionstestingservice.org
- Publishers are required to obtain their own copyright clearance for any third-party content contained within questions. Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing cannot provide clearance, or licence others, to use third-party material.
- Electronic access to the material must be free of charge. Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing does not give approval for its material to be placed behind a paywall.
- Where an external publisher is seeking to include Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing material alongside any exam guidance or model answers, it must be made clear that this is purely the work of the publisher and/or their authors and that this work has neither been seen nor verified by Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing.
- Complete question papers must not be reproduced in their entirety.
- Individual questions may be used, and each question should be reproduced in its entirety (all sub-parts must be included). Up to eight individual questions may be used within a resource in total (this could include questions from different sections of a test but must total no more than eight questions). If you wish to reproduce more questions than this, you must contact us for specific consent, at admissionstesting@cambridgeassessment.org.uk.
- The text of questions may not be altered in any way. Please contact admissionstesting@cambridgeassessment.org.uk if you wish to amend Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing questions to suit your purposes. Permission may be granted on the condition that you clearly indicate the amendment next to the question and in the acknowledgement.
- Reproduced questions should acknowledge Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing, the exam details and the exam date, for example, Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing, BMAT, Section 1, November 2014.
- There will normally be no charge for use of this material, but please inform Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing what you are using and in what context by emailing admissionstesting@cambridgeassessment.org.uk
- If you wish to use past paper content in ways not covered by this guidance, please contact us, before using the content, at admissionstesting@cambridgeassessment.org.uk
